ASSEMBLY BANKING AND INSURANCE COMMITTEE STATEMENT

2002 Electronic Update

Assembly, No. 2146--L.2001, c. 139

The Assembly Banking and Insurance Committee reports favorably an Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 2146.

This bill, an Assembly Committee Substitute for Assembly Bill No. 2146, provides for the regulation of the transfer of structured settlement payment rights by recipients thereof (known as payees in the bill) to factoring companies (known as transferees in the bill).

The bill provides that the transfer of structured settlement payment rights is not effective and the structured settlement obligor and annuity issuer are not obligated to pay a factoring company unless a court or responsible administrative authority approves the transfer. To approve the transfer, the court or responsible administrative authority must find that:

1. the transfer is in the best interest of the payee, taking into account the welfare and support of the payee's dependents;
2. the payee has been advised in writing by the factoring company to seek independent professional advice regarding the transfer and has either received the advice or knowingly waived the right to seek that advice in writing; and

3. the transfer does not contravene any applicable statute or an order of any court or other government authority.

The bill provides that a factoring company must provide to a prospective payee, at least three days prior to the date on which the payee signs a transfer agreement, a separate disclosure statement including the following:

1. the aggregate amount of payments transferred;
2. the present value of the payments transferred as determined using the applicable federal rate for valuing annuities;
3. the gross amount to be received from the factoring company, the listing of all applicable transfer expenses and the net amount to be received;
4. the amount of any penalties or liquidated damages payable by the payee in the event of any breach of the transfer agreement by the payee; and
5. the right to cancel the transfer agreement, without penalty, not later than the third business day after the date the agreement is signed by the payee.

The bill provides that following an approved transfer of structured settlement payment rights, the factoring company is liable to an annuity issuer and structured settlement obligor for any taxes incurred by those parties if the transfer contravenes the terms of the structured settlement and for other liabilities and costs arising from compliance by those parties with an order of the court or responsible administrative authority or arising as a consequence of the factoring company's failure to comply with the provisions of this bill. In addition, neither the annuity issuer nor the structured settlement obligor may be required to divide any periodic payment, nor are they liable for any double payments with respect to transferred payments.

Finally, the bill prohibits confessed or consent judgments under factoring agreements.

As reported, by the committee, this bill is identical to the Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 944(SCS)(SS).
