Friends and Colleagues,

All of us at Strategic Capital share the concerns surrounding the ever-changing situation with the coronavirus. First and foremost, we hope you and your loved ones are in good health. Our priority remains focused on the health and safety of our team, customers, and colleagues. We and our business relationships are equipped with the latest technology, enabling everyone to work remotely at this time.

With the current situation evolving daily, we know there are questions and concerns you may have now, or will have, as it relates to our services and how we can help your clients. Rest assured, we are here to help you and your clients navigate through these uncertain times and to be a resource for you. We remain ready to assist all of our customers, especially those directly affected by COVID-19, whether by illness or temporary unemployment. Please call us for further details (866-256-0088).

Looking forward, we acknowledge that some of us will experience new challenges, unthinkable prior to the pandemic. We understand this uncertainty is daunting, however, we are here to help guide you as best as we can.

Strategic Capital has been in business for over 25 years; we've seen a lot, and we are confident that this too shall pass.

As we go through this time, we find ourselves reminded of the things we treasure and hold dear, like family, friends, relationships and the confidence that we have what it takes to get through these times.

We look forward to getting through this safely and successfully together.

Our warmest wishes,

Strategic Capital
